A rare pair of George II Sugar Nips made in London circa 1755 by Elizabeth Oldfield.

Sold

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

REF: 163155

Description

The Sugar Nips are silver gilt and are of typical form. The arms, grips and central boss are decorated with feathery scroll and trellis work designs. The central boss is also engraved with a contemporary Scottish Crest above the Motto Fideliter - Faithful

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777