

A Charles II Side Handled Porringer made in London in 1683 by John Duck.

Sold

REF: 163803

Description

The Porringer is of typical circular form with a baluster shaped main body, which displays fine original hammer marks. This piece has a shaped, cast and pierced handle. This example is fully marked on the rim of the main body and with the sterling mark on the handle.

Length: 7.25 inches, 18.13cm.

Diameter of the bowl: 5 inches, 12.5cm.

Weight: 6oz.