

A fine George I Mug made in London in 1722 by Ambrose Stevenson.

Sold

REF: 176150

Description

The Mug is of a large size with a slightly baluster body and everted rim decorated with a reeded band. This piece has an applied stepped foot, tucked in base and plain scroll handle. The base displays a crisp set of marks and the mug has a fine colour and is of a good weight and gauge.

Height: 4 inches, 10cm.

Base Diameter: 3.45 inches, 8.63cm.

Weight: 11oz