A fine George II Salver made in London in 1734 by George Hindmarsh.

£1,550

REF: 374606

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

Description

The Salver stands on three hoof feet and displays a raised, stepped, border. The centre is engraved with a contemporary Armorial surrounded by a foliate scroll and brick work cartouche. This piece is in excellent condition, has a good colour and fine marks. George Hindmarsh was apprentice to the salver maker Robert Abercromby and seems to also have been a specialist in this area. He had workshops in Christopher Court, St Martin's Le Grand, when this piece was made.Diameter: 6 inches, 15cm.Weight: 8oz.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777