

A fine Queen Anne Britannia Standard Dognose Spoon made in London in 1709 by John Clifton.

Sold

REF: 225148

Description

The Spoon is modelled in the Dognose form, with a rat tail on the reverse of the bowl. The top of the stem is engraved with a set of contemporary initials and the stem is well marked. This piece has a good bowl, colour and is in excellent condition. John Clifton was apprentice to John King and had workshops in Foster Lane when this spoon was made.

Length: 7.9 inches.