A good George II Salver made in London in 1754 by Thomas Robinson.

£1,650

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

REF: 325675

Description

The Salver stands on three hoof feet and displays a raised shaped border decorated with scrolls and Rococo shell details. The centre of the Salver is engraved with a contemporary Armorial surrounded by a scroll, shell and foliate spray cartouche. The Arms are those of the Boteler family. The Salver is in excellent condition and has a fine colour. The reverse displays a crisp set of hallmarks and it original engraved scratch weight.

Diameter: 7.3 inches, 18.25cm.

Weight: 10oz.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777