

A pair of George II Cauldron Salt Cellars made in London in 1759 by David Hennell.

Sold

REF: 301961

Description

The Salt Cellars are modelled in the circular cauldron form and stand on three hoof feet. The rims are decorated with fine beading and both have blue glass liners. They are very well marked on the base and are engraved with a set of contemporary initials.

Height: 1.5 inches, 3.75cm.

Diameter: 2.6 inches, 6.5cm.