

A pair of matched George I/II Trencher Salts both made in London, one in 1726 by Glover Johnson and one in 1733 by Edward Wood.

Sold

REF: 209638

Description

The Salt Cellars of typical Trencher form with incuse sides decorated with reeding. The oval bowls are palely gilded and both are marked underneath.

Height: 1 inch, 2.5 cm.

Length: 3 inches, 7.5cm.

Width: 2.5 inches, 6.25cm.