

A rare George II "Bell" shaped Tot Cup made in London in 1733 by George Greenhill Jones.

Sold

REF: 228921

Description

The Cup stands on a circular, stepped, spreading foot which is decorated with reeding. The unusual bell shaped main body rises to an everted rim, decorated with reeding. This piece has a plain scroll handle and the front is engraved with a contemporary cipher. The mug is in excellent condition, has a good colour and is very well marked in the foot. This design and size of cup does not appear often and Greenhill-Jones, specialised in the production of these small items of silver.

Height: 2.1 inches, 5.25cm

Diameter at the rim: 2.5 inches, 6.25cm

Weight: 4oz