

A fine George III antique silver Salver made in London in 1792 by Daniel Pontifex & William Fountain.

Sold

Description

This fine Salver is circular in form and stands on four unusual cast legs, decorated with bat wing fluting and displaying a ball foot. The main body rises to a stepped rim which is decorated with a beaded band. The centre is beautifully engraved with an unusual contemporary griffin Crest holding a sword. This is surrounded by an oval reed and tie cartouche, within a beaded frame. The Salver is of a very good gauge and weight and displays crisp marks on the reverse.

Diameter: 7.6 inches, 19cm.

Height: 1.1 inches, 2.75cm.

Weight: 14oz.