A fine George III "Barrel" Mug made in London in 1779 by John Edwards III & William Frisbee. The maker's mark of Thomas Daniel overstriking, as retailer.

£1,250

REF: 375731

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

Description

The Mug has a slightly baluster form with reeded horizontal bands intended to simulate the iron hoops on the barrel. The Mug has a reeded loop handle, and reeded rim, and is in excellent condition. It displays a crisp set of marks under the rim.Height: 3.6 inches, 9 cm.Diameter at the rim: 2.45 inches.Weight: 4oz.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777