A fine George III Bougie Box made in London in 1792 by Thomas Phipps & Edward Robinson.

£1,375

REF: 375082

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

Description

This fine box is circular in form with a pull-off cover. The sides, base and cover display reeded borders and a circular swing extinguisher. This example has a shaped carrying handle modelled as a buckle. The Bougie Box is in excellent condition and is very well marked on the base and on the cover, as well as with a sterling mark on the side. The side is engraved with the contemporary Armorial of a Lady in a lozenge shaped surround.Diameter: 2 inches, 5cm.Height: 1 inch.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777