

A fine pair of George III Wine Goblets made in London in 1781 by Wakelin & Taylor.

Sold

REF: 136867

Height: 6 cm (2.4")

Diameter: 3 cm (1.2")

Description

The Goblets stand on a circular pedestal foot decorated with a band of applied beading. The vase shaped bodies have fine interior gilding and are engraved with a garter containing the Motto Suivez Raison - Follow reason as your guide. The Garter contains a set of contemporary initials and displays a Crest above.