

A pair of George III Butter Shells made in London in 1807 by John Emes.

Sold

REF: 218062

Description

The Butter Shells are of typical form and the main body is modelled as a scallop shell with plain carrying handle. Each shell stands on three winkle feet and is very well marked.

Width: 5 inches, 12.5cm

Length: 5.45 inches, 13.63cm

Weight: 9oz