

A rare George III "Barrel" Milk Jug made in London by George Smith in 1783.

Sold

REF: 374348

Description

This very rare Jug is realistically modelled as a barrel, with horizontal reeded bands to simulate the metal bands on the barrel. This example has a "sparrow beak" pouring spout with pendant drop below and a reeded scroll handle. The Jug is in excellent condition and is very well marked on the base.

Height: 2.6 inches, 6.5 cm.

Base Diameter: 1.5 inches, 3.75 cm.

Length, handle to spout: 3.45 inches, 8.63cm.

Weight: 5oz.