

A rare pair of George III Field Cups made in London in 1788 by John King.

Sold

REF: 108514

Height: 3 cm (1.2")

Diameter: 2 cm (0.8")

Description

The Field Cups are plain in design and have slightly tapering sides. Both have gilded interiors and are well marked on the side of the main body. Field were cups were used for drinking while out hunting in the field and fit inside each other for carrying. Equally they could be used while travelling.

Weight: 7oz