

A set of six early George III Hanoverian Dessert Spoons made in London in 1768 by Thomas & William Chawner.

£595

REF: 375333

Description

The Spoons are made in the Hanoverian Pattern and are bottom marked. The top of each stem is engraved with a contemporary Crest. Thomas and William Chawner were fine flatware makers during this period. Length: 6.45 inches, 16.13 cm