

A very fine George III Salad/Serving Fork made in London in 1772 by Thomas Chawner

Sold

REF: 374687

Description

The Fork is modelled in the slender Old English Pattern and displays six upturned tines. The top of the stem is engraved with a set of contemporary script initials. The fork is very well marked, of a good gauge and is in excellent condition.Length: 12 inches, 30cm.Weight: 6oz.