Description

This very fine example has a domed main body, with a reeded base. The spout is in excellent condition and has three ribbed supports. The detachable bowl has a side clip, to attach to the punch bowl, and gadrooned rim. The bowl is pierced with roundels to simulate a flower head design. This piece is very well marked and is engraved with a contemporary Crest. This piece is of a very good gauge and is in excellent condition, as would be expected of this fine silversmith. Terrey had workshops at 23 Hatton Garden when this piece was made.

Height: 6.2 inches, 15.5cm. Diameter of the bowl: 3.45 inches, 8.63cm. Weight: 9oz.
