A very fine pair of George III Wine Goblets made in Edinburgh in 1806 by James Douglas.

£5,500

REF: 374968

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

Description

The Goblets stand on a circular pedestal foot decorated with a Greek key and prick dot band. The vase shaped main body is decorated at the rim with a band of wave designs, flanked by wriggle work and prick dot designs. The interior of the bowl displays deep gilding and each is fully marked in the foot. The Goblets are modelled in a good large size and are in excellent, crisp, condition.Height: 7.3 inches, 18.25 cm.Diameter at the rim: 4 inches, 10 cm.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777