

A very rare George III Mustard Pot made in London in 1782 by William Abdy.

Sold

REF: 154147

Height: 3 cm (1.2")

Diameter: 2 cm (0.8")

Description

The Mustard Pot is of the Drum form with a beaded band at the rim and the base. The sides are unusually pierced with three horizontal bands of bluebell drops. This example has a very unusual high domed cover decorated with bright cut and prick dot bands. The Mustard has a scroll handle and pierced fan shaped thumb piece.
