

HESTER BATEMAN. A very pretty pair of George III Salt Cellars made in London in 1789 by Hester Bateman.

Sold

Description

The Salts are modelled in an attractive "Boat" shaped form and stand on four scroll feet decorated with flat fluting and shells. The sides rise to a reeded rim and are pierced with a band of arch work containing flower heads. Each end displays a raying flowerhead in a circular frame. The sides are also engraved with prick dot bands and two oval cartouches, vacant at the back and containing a contemporary family Crest at the front. Each is in quite excellent condition, has a blue glass liner and is fully marked on the underside. Height: 2 inches, 5cm. Length: 3.45 inches, 8.63 cm. Width: 2.45 inches, 6.13 cm.