NEWCASTLE. A rare set of six George III Snuff Spoons made in Newcastle circa 1786-90 by Langlands & Robertson.

£850

REF: 375378

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

Description

The Snuff Spoons are modelled in the Old English Pattern and are engraved at the top of the stem with the contemporary script initials "ER". Each has a good bowl, with thick tip to the end and each displays a good set of hallmarks. To find a single snuff spoon from Newcastle is rare, however to find a set of six is most unusual.Length: 2.95 inches, 7.38 cm.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777