

PAUL STORR. A set of ten George III Fiddle & Thread Pattern Table
Spoons and Tableforks all made in London by Paul Storr.

Sold

REF: 175897

Description

The Spoons and Forks are made in the Fiddle and Thread Pattern and are double struck. Each is engraved at the top of the stem with a contemporary Crest and are very well marked. The set consists of ten table spoons and ten table forks, twenty pieces in total. All pieces were made in London by Paul Storr. All of the Spoons were made in 1817 and 6 of the forks were made in 1817 and 4 were made in 1815. The whole set is identical in form and is of a very good gauge, colour and weight.

Length of the Spoons: 8.5 inches, 21.25cm

Length of the Forks: 7.8 inches, 19.5cm.

Total Weight: 61oz.