YORK. A very rare English Provincial Apple Corer made in York circa 1786-90 by Hampston & Prince.

Sold

REF: 374863

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

Description

The Apple Corer has a tubular form with a reeded band where the blade meets the handle. The Canon handle has a drop at the end and this piece is in most excellent condition. The underside of the blade is marked with the sterling mark, duty mark and cruciform mark of Hampston & Prince. Apple Corers from the Provincial centres of silver production are extremely rare.Length: 5 inches, 12.5 cm

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777