

MARY COOKE ANTIQUES LTD
Fine Antique Silver

An extremely rare Rococo Revival cast Preserve Spoon made in London in 1842 by Charles & George Fox.

Sold

REF: 239004

Description

This very rare spoon is cast and modelled in the naturalistic Rococo style. The stem is decorated with trailing foliate designs and the bowl is textured to simulate a matted shell. The reverse of the stem displays a scroll cartouche engraved with a contemporary Crest. The spoon is very well marked and displays all of the characteristics of the Fox brothers.

Length: 6.8 inches, 17cm.