

An extremely rare Wine Label for LATOUR made in London in 1871 by William Summers.

Sold

Description

This very rare wine label is oval in form with a bold gadrooned rim. It is engraved with the very rare title of LATOUR. It is in quite excellent condition and is very well marked. Chateau Latour is a French wine from the Bordeaux area. It was rated as a First Growth under the 1855 Bordeaux Classification system. The estates grand vin is one of the most expensive Cabernet Sauvignon-Merlot wines made in the Medoc region. For example, an imperiale (six litre bottle) of 1961 Chateau Latour sold for £ 135,000 in 2011. This label came from a set which were made for the Dukes of Westminster and which were sold by Christies's in 2004.Length: 2.1 inches, 5.25 cm.