

A rare George III Daisy Caddy Spoon made in Birmingham in 1810 by John Lawrence.

Sold

REF: 374030

Description

The Caddy Spoon is finely modelled as a raying daisy, with fluted bowl to simulate the petals. The handle is engraved with bright cut foliate designs and an oval prick dot cartouche. This piece is in excellent condition and is very well marked.

Length: 2.45 inches, 6.13cm.
