

A rare George IV "Horseshoe" Caddy Spoon made in Birmingham in 1821 by John Bettridge.

Sold

REF: 192638

Description

The bowl of the Caddy Spoon is modelled as a Horses Hoof, with a shaped pierced gallery. The bowl is engraved with foliate designs and the fiddle pattern handle is decorated with prick dot bands. Very well marked in the bowl.

Length: 3.25 inches, 8.13cm