

A set of six early George III Hanoverian Dessert Spoons made in London in 1768 by William Tant.

Sold

REF: 205465

Description

The Dessert Spoons are made in the Hanoverian pattern, are bottom marked and are each engraved with a contemporary Crest at the top of each stem. The spoons have good bowls and a fine colour. Dessert sized spoons in this pattern are particularly scarce.

Length: 6.5 inches, 16.25cm.
