

CHARLES II. A very fine Lace Back Trefid Spoon made in London in 1682 by Stephen Venables Junior.

Sold

REF: 310046

Description

The Spoon is modelled in the Trefid style and the back of the bowl displays finely detailed scroll lace work entwined with beaded bands, around a raised rat tail. The back of the stem displays exceptional hallmarks and is also scratch engraved, at the top of the stem, with contemporary initials. The front of the stem also displays very beautiful raised lacework including scroll work and beading. The spoon is in excellent condition, with a good bowl and colour.

Length: 7.75 inches, 19.38cm.
