

An exceptionally fine set of six George IV Hourglass Dessert Spoons made in London in 1823 by William Eley & William Fearn.

Sold

Description

These exceptional Dessert Spoons are modelled in the "Hourglass" pattern and are double struck, the design being on both the front and reverse. The backs of the bowls of the spoon also display a beautiful raying shell motif. The Spoons are in excellent, crisp, condition and are of a very good gauge and weight, typical of the work of these superior flatware makers.

Length: 7 inches, 17.5cm.

Weight: 13oz.
