

A George III Serving Spoon made in Dublin in 1789 by John Pittar.

Sold

REF: 153254

Description

This very fine spoon has a Celtic Point stem and displays crisp bright cut borders, as well as a vacant oval cartouche and typically Irish star motif. The spoon is in excellent condition and has a good bowl.

Length: 10.25 inches.