

A George III Sifter Spoon made in London in 1794 by Smith & Fearn

Sold

REF: 120518

Description

This Sugar Sifter Spoon was made in London in 1794 by George Smith & William Fearn and the circular bowl is pierced with crosses and scroll work. This example has an Old English Thread Pattern stem which is engraved at the top with a contemporary Crest.

Length: 6 inches.