

A rare George III Butter Spade made in London in 1798 by Abstainando King

Sold

REF: 135281

Description

The blade of the butter spade is most unusually modelled and engraved to simulate an acorn. The silver mounted handle has a ribbed design and is made of green stained ivory. This is a rare design which was peculiar to the workshops of Abstainando King

Length: 7.75 inches.