Description

This very rare example is known as the Rose growing up Trellis design and displays, on the cover and base, a detailed raised stylised rose motif climbing up a trellis work ground. The edge also displays an outer band of rose motifs. The sides are decorated with linear cording and the interior is finely gilded and is well marked on the bezel. The grille is pierced and engraved with pluming scrolls and a central flower head, all contained within a herring bone frame. The Vinaigrette is in quite excellent condition and is a rare design.
