

An unusual George III Vinaigrette made in Birmingham in 1817 by John Bettridge.

Sold

REF: 218907

Description

The Vinaigrette is broad rectangular in form and the cover is unusually decorated with a detailed vine leaf and bunch of grapes, surrounded by an engine turned frame. The base is engraved with prick dot bands and a central tartan panel. The interior is very finely gilded and the grille is pierced with diamond motifs.

Length: 1.25 inches, 3.13cm

Width: 0.9 inches, 2.25cm