

A rare George III Sauce Label made in Edinburgh in 1817 by George McHattie

Sold

REF: 374437

Description

The Sauce Label is broad rectangular in form with cut corners and a double thread edge. This example is engraved with the rare title of CHILI VINEGAR and displays a very crisp set of hallmarks on the reverse. Sauce Labels from Scotland do not survive in great quantities, especially with this rare title and a full set of hallmarks.

Length: 1.15 inches.
