

A rare George III Wine Label made in London in 1797 by Joseph Stewart.

Sold

REF: 374861

Description

The label has an unusual narrow rectangular form with rounded ends and a double thread edge. The label is engraved with the rare title of BERSAC, a misspelling of Barsac. The label displays exceptional niello filled lettering, is in excellent condition and is very well marked on the reverse. Length: 1.9 inches, 4.75 cm. Width: 0.65 inches, 1.63 cm.