

A very rare George III cast Wine Label made in London in 1809 by Thomas Phipps & Edward Robinson.

Sold

REF: 353275

Description

The Wine label is modelled in a slightly curved, shaped rectangular, form with gadrooned border interspersed with raying shells. The face displays a plain raised banner pierced for SHERRY, on a matted surround. The label is in excellent condition.

Length: 2.1 inches, 5.25cm