

An unusual George III Wine Label made in London in 1803 by John Reilly.

Sold

Description

The label is modelled in the heraldic design. The main body has a rectangular form with rounded ends and displays a beautiful pierced outer border containing semi circles with tri-furcated motifs inside. This is all enclosed by a bright cut outer border. The face is pierced for RUM and the label displays a vacant oval cartouche above, with scroll supporters each side. The label is in quite excellent condition and is very well marked on the reverse.Length: 2.5 inches.Width: 1.5 inches.