

BATEMAN FAMILY. A very unusual George III Wine Label made in London in 1813 by Peter & William Bateman.

Sold

Description

The wine label is modelled in a very unusual shaped oval form and the outer border is engraved with stylised trailing vines and grapes. The centre of the face is engraved with vertical linear bands around a rectangular banner engraved for SHERRY. This is a most unusual design from the Bateman workshops and wine labels are not often seen by Peter & William Bateman. This piece is in excellent condition and is fully marked on the reverse.

Length: 2.15 inches, 5.38cm.

Width: 1.2 inches, 3cm.
