

A fine pair of George II Silver Gilt Sugar Nips made in London circa 1755 by Henry Plumptre.

Sold

REF: 192406

Description

The Nips are of typical cast form with scroll shaped arms and shell grips. The central oval boss is engraved, on the front, with a contemporary Crest and on the reverse with contemporary initials. The Nips are in excellent condition and are marked on the finger grips.

Length: 4.9 inches, 12.25cm

Width, across the grips: 2 inches, 5cm.