

A rare George II Punch Ladle, Chester, 1738, Richard Richardson II

Sold

REF: 120529

Description

The Ladle has an egg shaped bowl, of very good gauge, and a silver sleeve which houses the turned fruitwood handle. The sleeve is attached to the main body with a shield shaped moulding. The ladle is fully marked on the exterior of the bowl, which has a very fine colour.

Length: 13.75 inches

Width of the bowl: 3.35 inches