A rare pair of George II "Bun" Peppers made in London in 1750 by Walter Brind.

Sold

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

REF: 218059

Description

The Peppers stand of circular domed feet decorated with reeding. The bellied main bodies have a central protruding girdle. The stepped, domed, pull off cover is pierced with roundels in bands and terminates in a cast bell finial. Each is fully marked in the foot. It is most unusual to find pairs of peppers at this date in this style.

Height: 4 inches, 10cm.

Diameter of the foot: 1.75 inches, 4.38cm.

Weight: 5oz.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777