A very fine George II Reversible Marrow Scoop made in London in 1727 by William Scarlett.

£775

REF: 375382

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

Description

The Marrow Scoop is of typical form and plain in design. This one is unusually modelled in the reversible form, with the larger scoop facing one way and the smaller one the other. This example is in excellent condition, is of a very good gauge and is very well marked.Length: 8.45 inches, 21.13 cm.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777