

A George III Gothic Wine Coaster made in London in 1772 by John Robins.

Sold

REF: 203590

Description

The Wine Coaster has a gadrooned rim and displays a protruding girdle at the base decorated with cording. The sides are beautifully hand pierced with Gothic arch work and the front displays a vacant cartouche. The coaster has its original turned fruitwood base and is very well marked.

Height: 1.1 inches, 2.75cm

Diameter: 4.5 inches, 11.3cm.