

A George III Mustard Pot made in London in 1793 by John Troby.

Sold

REF: 108556

Height: 2 cm (0.8")

Diameter: 3 cm (1.2")

Description

The Mustard Pot has an unusual shallow form, is plain in design and is decorated with reeded bands on the base and rim. The Pot has a reeded handle and unusual cast and pierced thumb piece. The Mustard comes with an Old English Pattern Mustard Spoon which was made in London in 1816 by Solomon Hougham.

Weight: 5oz