

A set of six George IV Dessert Knives made in Dublin in 1825 by Samuel Beere.

Sold

REF: 202288

Description

The Dessert Knives are modelled in the Kings pattern with the design on the front and reverse. The blades are also made of silver and were most probably used for dessert, fruit or cheese.

Length: 8.5 inches, 21.25cm.