Description

The Goblets have a very elegant form and stand on a circular pedestal foot decorated with bold beading and acanthus spears. The foot rises to a second beaded band, where it meets the vase shaped body, and the bowl is also decorated with a second band of acanthus spears, in sizes, below a contemporary Crest on a chapeau. Both pieces are in excellent condition, have gilded interiors and are fully marked on the side of the main body. They are of a very good gauge of silver. The Crest is that as used by a member of the extended Howard family.William Grundy was apprenticed to Edward Vincent in 1731 and entered his first mark as a large worker on 23rd December, 1743. He wad workshops in Fetter Lane when these beautiful Goblets were made.Height: 6.2 inches, 15.5 cm.Diameter at the rim of the bowl: 3.5 inches, 8.75 cm.Weight: 18oz, the pair.
